

Social Sciences Administrative Structure 2017-18, College of Letters and Science

Each colored block below represents an administrative cluster providing support services to the independent academic units listed below. Departments are shown in bold type.

¹Service Centers serve all units in Social Sciences.

²Academic appointments administered in Social Sciences; staff and administrative services in Athletics.

Note: We have grouped academic units with different staff clusters, taking account of proximity and workload, the latter reflecting a variety of factors, including number of faculty FTE, amount of extramural funding, number of classes and majors, divisionwide services, and special facilities like museums, laboratories and vivaria.
